Winter Holiday Homework
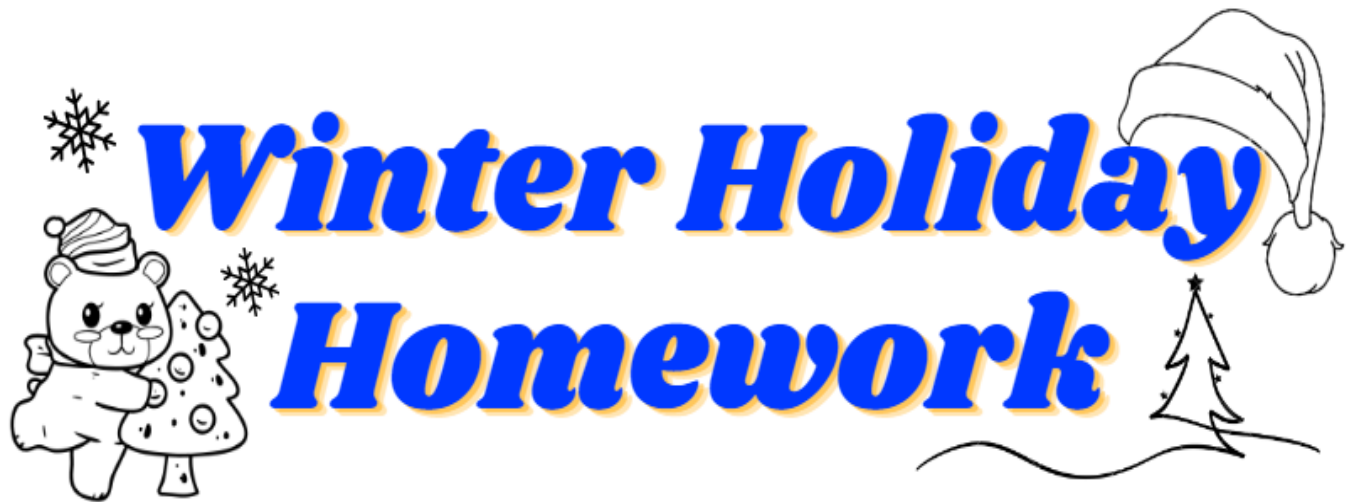

Greetings everyone,

As we step into the winter holidays, let's turn this break into a perfect blend of relaxation and growth. Embrace the joy of the season, indulge in some well-deserved fun, but also make room for a bit of learning magic. Whether it's diving into a captivating book, exploring a new hobby, or unravelling the mysteries of winter science, let's use this time to keep our minds active and our spirits bright.

Wishing you a holiday filled with laughter, warmth, and the perfect balance of fun and learning!

Instructions-

- Take the help of your parents when necessary.

- The written part should be neatly presented in your own handwriting.

- Do reading and writing practice daily.

Winter Break Homework 2023-24

Social Studies

Task 1 -   Visit to a post office

During the winter, take a trip to your nearest post office with your parents. Select a postcard/letter and write New Year wishes for your parents.

Now with the help of the people at the post office, gather supplies that you need like stamps etc. and post the postcard to yourself.

Answer the following questions in your notebook and paste the postcard/letter in your notebook when you receive it in the mail :-

- During your visit, was the post office busy or quiet? What do you think was the reason for it to be busy or quiet?
- What did you observe at the post office? Did you see people mailing letters or packages? How does the post office work?
- What all supplies were required to post the postcard/letter?
- Did you find any interesting stamps at the post office? Describe them!
- How did you feel upon receiving the postcard/letter?

Task 2 -   Pamphlet/ Travel Brochure

Imagine you're a travel guide and your task is to entice people to visit the vibrant state of Delhi.

Create a travel brochure to provide a glimpse into the rich culture, history, and experiences Delhi has to offer. You can include the following elements:
